

Jesse Lee Styers

November 1, 2018

Jesse Lee Styers, age 39, of Corinth, Mississippi and formerly of Georgetown, Delaware went home to be with his savior on November 1, 2018. He passed away at his mother's home in Laurel. Born in Milford, he is the son of Conrad L. Styers of Georgetown and Lora Taylor-Hastings and his step-father Mark Hastings of Laurel.

In his youth, he had attended Epworth Christian School and graduated from Sussex Tech Highschool class of "1997". He was a very active member of Pinecrest Baptist Church in Corinth, Mississippi.

Jesse was a talented builder and contractor. His laugh was infectious and his personality was magnetic. Jesse was always polite and mannerly and he had a tremendous gift for human compassion. He greatly enjoyed attending Victory Tabernacle Church with his family.

In addition to his parents, Jesse is survived by his brother Luke Styers and his wife Melissa. His step-sister Erin Gabbert and her husband Kyle; paternal grandmother Ada Brinker; nieces and nephews, Allyson, Kaela, and Cade Styers; step-niece Brianna Gabbert; aunts and uncles, Chip Cole and his wife Debbie, Larry Brinker and his wife Dawn, Gene Taylor and Rhonda, Tom Taylor and his wife June, Sally Bradshaw and her husband Glenn, and Beth Taylor. Numerous cousins also survive him.

Jesse is preceded in death by his grandparents; Donna Taylor, Gene Taylor, and Henry Styers. He is also preceded in death by his cousin Jessica Taylor.

A viewing will be held on Saturday, November 10, 2018 from 10:00 am- 12:00 pm at Victory Tabernacle Church, 28261 Seaford Road, Laurel, DE 19956. A funeral service will be held at the church at 12:00 pm. Pastor Stacey Johnson will officiate. Interment will follow in Epworth Cemetery in Laurel.

To help defray funeral costs, donations may be made in Jesse's honor to his family, and "Go Fund Me" page is also available.

Arrangements are in the care of the Hannigan, Short, Disharoon Funeral Home in Laurel.

“ This breaks my heart, I dated Jesse when I was 16 an again when I was 31, I fell in love quick with him, and we remained good friends.. He could always make me laugh he had a great sense of humor, always had great talks about our love for God an Jesus, I will miss him so so much, This saddens me greatly to hear of his passing. My prayers go out to his family.

“ "Everyone you meet is fighting a battle you know nothing about. Be kind. Always."

I came across this quote recently and it made me think of Jesse. Not only was he fighting a battle that many around him probably knew nothing about but I feel he that also knew and understood that truth about others and chose to be kind to those around him, regardless of whether he knew them had just met them.

“ God thank you for Jesse. He is a gift from you. We pray he has eternal life and is feeling a fuller type of love with you through Jesus Christ. He reflected kindness and love to everyone, even me and I am a lawyer. We love him and are so grateful for the time he touched our lives reflecting your love. He truly is an adopted son of God through Jesus Christ.

Please strengthen his loved ones with faith and love during this most difficult time. I am sorry for our loss. Love, Meg Kelly

“ Even though Jesse had not lived in Corinth for long, we at Pinecrest Baptist Church loved him as if he had been here all his life. When I think of him, I think of food. Anytime we had a meal at church, he was always talking about how good everyone's food was. It was usually pretty easy to talk him into taking home a lot of the leftovers. He will be missed, but always remembered.

“ When we first went to Pinecrest Baptist Church, Steve and I met your Baby Brother First and then we got to meet you What a huge impact it surely was!! The first day we were there is when You gave your life and heart to Jesus and then you got Baptized by your Baby Brother Luke Styers.... It was a Glorious Day indeed! Your brother Luke had the biggest smile on his face with tears continually filling and falling down his happy face, with you smiling and goodness i never seen someone so nervous than i seen you that day... You and your brother were so close it was like a bond that i never seen before your love for each other was amazing. :D We got to know y'all better we broke bread at y'alls house one saturday eating bar-b-que chicken and the works! We all got so close you and Luke became our brother's You was always looking out for baby brother too i just love seeing y'all around one another and how you relationship was it reminded me of my sisters and me. Jess you are a bright and loving person, so smart, so kind and always helping where ever help was called for and Luke is just the same it's like y'all are twins. We are so grateful we got to share life with you and learn about who you were as a person and as a christian man with many talents! We loved you when we first met you and Luke too and we love you more more everyday. You i can see have already hugged with Jesus and danced with Him!! You taught me so much you truly sincerely have taught me to be a better person and Christian thank you and Luke for all the things you've done for us. Purposely and accidentally. God always calls home His best.. Life will never be the same without you i am going to have to relearn how to live life without Jess, Church is hard to go to for us right now We look for you in your familiar places like in Sunday school and in service sitting right behind us it was a true please to Have the Styers apart of us and life. We are going to keep going to church bro and always do what you taught us to do... that way one day maybe someday soon we shall meet again. For now i will remember the sweet memories of you, your sense of humor, how you and Steve picked on one another and Luke too!!!! I make you a promise now Jesse Lee Styers , I promise that as long as Steve and i shall live we will do everything we can to take Great care of Baby brother Luke that's my promise to you. Mister shy guy ;) Before i close this up i will never forget the 2nd Sunday after services you ran up to me and lol silly you Jesse, you said Can i call you Mandy isn't that what your family calls you is Mandy? I answered yes and you can call me that and you said well good so now you can call me Jess all my family and friends call me Jess and you are both to me now. So call me Jess and i said certainly i will call you Jess are you sure though and you said yes that would make me happy. We hugged and said see you later tonight enjoy your afternoon. both smiling walking our separate ways i will never forget that and now that's all i call you is Jess just like you want! :D Another thing that hurts like heck right now is, the last Sunday i seen you i said don't take to long Jess you said take to long doing what, i said you have to come back as quick as possible so we can hang out and do Church You Steve Luke Mellisa and me and you smiled so big and said yessss i sure will as quick as possible i said promise and you promised me Jess, we shall see each other again, in Heaven with Jesus okay and also I said i will miss you and you said you's miss me too we chuckled and I went into the Sunday school classroom and waited you, you came in later after that. Jess thank you for being Steve's and my Brother you and Luke love U talk to you later. Steve is still Cookie Tush ;)

“ I was so sorry to hear about Jesse’s passing. I met him several years ago when my late husband and I had him do some tile work for us. He so so friendly and easy to talk to...very nice young man...my sincerest sympathy to his family and friends.

“ Jesse, you were just a baby when I came in to the Taylor family. I remember you as always loving with a tender heart. Always smiling and looking for ways to make others laugh. God truly blessed you with beautiful spirit. I'm so sad that you're gone from this world but I am happy to know that your soul is with the maker of the universe. You're in a place that has no pain, no temptation, no fear and no sadness. It is the ones who are left behind that will be left to mourn and feel the pain of your moving on. Your pain is gone, your heart is healed and you are in the presence of the almighty God. I pray that your mom Lora, your dad Conrad and your brother Luke and the rest of the family are able to feel your presence and your love for them on a daily basis. I pray that God gives them peace and understanding so that they may move on in this world knowing that you are finally at peace until you all meet again. <3

“ One thing I remember most about Jesse is his servant heart. Everytime we would have a fellowship meal at church or anywhere else he was always the one asking you if he could get you something else or refill your drink. He was also the one going around throwing your plate away when you were finished and cleaning the kitchen up or taking the trash out. He will be missed. He was also my friend and my brother in Christ. Thanks Jesse

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. He was my great nephew whom I never got to meet. My daughter either met him or his brother when she live in Delaware. She thought the name Styers was probably kin. But we didn't know at the time they were in Delaware.

You all are in my thoughts and prayers.
